

BSB40420

Certificate IV in Human Resource Management

Course Overview

This qualification reflects the role of individuals who work in a range of human resources roles. The job roles that relate to this qualification may include Human Resources Officer, Human Resources Coordinator and Payroll Officer.

Responsibilities are likely to be determined at a workplace level. Some smaller organisations may require employees to work across all aspects of human resources. In larger organisations, individuals may support a single human resources function.

There are no specific entry requirements for this program, and it is targeted for domestic, corporate and industries for students wishing to obtain higher degree qualifications. The development of the program was with a consultation with industry advisors to respond to a need that has developed for additional educational vacancies for specialist Business industry positions that will benefit from Nationally Recognised Training.

Several units of competency require the use of a computer. You are expected to supply your own device such as a laptop, notebook or Ipad that is capable of Wi-Fi connectivity and loaded with the Microsoft suite of programs. As a candidate, you will be required to show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role.

The course is a pack of 12 units of competence consisting of 6 core units and 6 elective units. This course has been designed to suit the needs of those who wish to complete Business and work within the various Business sectors in various business roles.
